Surprise Win Is Predicted By McGovern

By WILLIAM F. WINTER and HARRY A. BARNES
To the resounding chant, "We want George — We want George," U.S. Sen. George McGovern in the final weekend of his Presidential campaign delivered a hard-hitting speech in Granite City Saturday night in which he predicted another four years of war in Southeast Asia if President Nixon is re-elected Tuesday.

He asserted, "President Nixon and his backers are going to be the most surprised people in the country" after tomorrow's votes are counted. It was a gala night for the Democrats, as more than 4,000 persons overflowed the Granite City High School gymnasium for an old-fashioned type of political rally complete with waving banners, decorated hats and regalia, foot-stomping and hand-clapping — and plenty of political talk.

34,000 May Vote Here

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

A record number of voters is expected to go to the polls in the Quad-Cities and Madison County tomorrow to ballot in an election sparked by the presidential and Illinois state races.

Polling places throughout the 24 townships of Madison County will open at 6 a.m. and close at 6 p.m. Voting machines will be used in all 197 precincts in the county.

Quad-City voters will ballot in 61 precincts—32 in Granite City Township, 11 in Venice Township, 11 in Nameoki Township and seven in Chouteau Township.

Voting results will be certified to the office of County Clerk Eulalia Hotz at Edwardsville by precinct poll judges. Early returns are anticipated from most precincts because voting machines automatically tabulate the vote. The only paper ballots to be handled by precinct election officials will involve tabulation of absentee ballots.

A countywide vote of approximately 116,000 was projected by Miss Hotz on the basis of a record voter registration this year totaling 131,001. Miss Hotz said she expects 88% of the registered voters to go to the polls.

If this estimate holds true, approximately 34,000 voters may be expected to cast ballots in tomorrow's election. The four townships of the Quad-City area have a combined voter registration of 37,667, or 29% of the county total.

The previous record vote in Madison County was cast in the 1960 general election when 99,233 voters went to the polls.

The Quad-City vote that year was 27,255, or 27% of the total vote countywide. At the district and county levels, voters will elect a congressman of the 23rd congressional district, three state representatives of the 36th legislative district, a state senator, also of the 36th district, two members of the East Side Senate and Sanitary District and five county officials.

Voters also will ballot on the retention of Circuit Judge Fred Schuman as a judge of the Third Judicial Circuit. Veteran Congressman Melvin Price of East St. Louis is seeking re-election to his 15th consecutive two-year term on the Democratic ballot.

He is opposed on the Republican ballot by Robert Mays, an East St. Louis city commissioner. In the legislative race, State Senator Sam Vadala is seeking re-election to his second term on the Democratic ballot, opposed on the GOP ticket by Martin "Tony" Olson of Alton.

For the three state representative posts open to election tomorrow, candidates include incumbent State Rep. Horace Calvo of Granite City, and incumbent State Rep. Leland J. Kennedy of Alton, both Democrats.

Republican candidates for state representative are Robert J. Walter, incumbent, of Alton, and Mrs. Phyllis Walker of Muro.

Democratic candidates for the two levee district trusteeships are William "Mike" Eb-

Nursing Home Permit Obtained; Cost at $325,000

A building permit to construct a 129-bed Colonial Haven Nursing Home at 3000 Stearns Ave. at a cost of $325,000 was issued last week.

It was obtained by Robert J. Swiatek, owner of the ground. The home is being developed by National Investors & Finance Co. of Springfield.

The contractor is Charles E. Wood of Belleville. The facility will be located on a 4½-acre tract of Stearns Avenue just south of Pontoon Road. It will have 28,000 square feet of floor space and will be of fire resistant construction with gas and electric heating and air conditioning throughout.

It will include space for physical and occupational therapy and will provide lounge and recreational areas and complete laundry and kitchen facilities. The firm has 16 similar facilities throughout the Midwest and also operates shelter homes, motels and shopping centers in the west and in Illinois.

Pontoon Road Detour Scheduled Tuesday
A detour on Pontoon Road at Primrose Avenue will be set up tomorrow to permit installation of a sewer line for the Route 203 improvement.

G.H. Stierberg, contractor for the drainage installation, said the work necessitating the detour will be completed in one day and regular use of Pontoon Road will be restored Tuesday night.

Motorists westbound will be able to detour onto Wabash or Spring Avenue, while eastbound motorists may detour over Venice Avenue to Prairie to Spring Avenue.

McGovern - President '72

McGovern, whose address was interrupted frequently by the cheering audience, flatly predicted his election in Tuesday's balloting despite estimates that he may carry only two states.

The candidate began by saying that "Lieutenant Governor Paul Simon is the epitome of decency and character which we so desperately need in the political life of this country."

Simon, McGovern's Illinois chairman, was master-of-ceremonies. He recalled Cong. Price favorably from McGovern's House service and said Price "has grown steadily in stature since then." He also praised Cong. Pucinski.

McGovern noted "speculation in a local paper (the Press-Record) as to why I chose to speak in Granite City. I have some good reasons."

"This afternoon, you're high school football team won 31-30. The soccer team won 1-0 and is on its way to a state championship."

"And so, this is a great place for a Presidential candidate to come with full expectation that he will win the election next Tuesday."

"Last night we were in Chicago for a great rally. Mayor

Ogilvie-Walker Vote Battle Remains Close

By KEN WATSON

Springfield — A landslide for President Nixon.

A very close race for governor.

A history-making plurality for U.S. Sen. Charles H. Percy of Winnetka.

Another big victory for Attorney General William J. Scott of Springfield.

An against-the-trend triumph for "Michael" J. Howlett of Chicago in the race for secretary of state.

That's the view from the Statehouse Dome as the curtain falls on the 1972 Illinois election campaign.

As far as the Capitol is concerned, the big race — and certainly the one most in doubt — is that for governor. The only real agreement is that the final outcome is bound to be close. It is considered likely that the final difference between Republican Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie of Northfield and Democratic challenger Daniel Walker of Deerfield either way will be less than 100,000 votes out of well over five million cast.

The finish may well be the closest since Republican incumbent William G. Stratton squeaked past Democrat Richard B. Austin by 36,877 votes in 1956.

Some Statehouse strategists would not be too surprised if next week saw a duplication of the famed "long count" of 1952 when Republican Charles F. Carpenter outlasted Democratic incumbent Edward J. Barrett by a mere 9,030 votes in the secretary of state's race.

The Ogilvie-Walker battle has taken on a tetter-tetter character. Poll analysis in recent years has become a favorite Statehouse pastime, but even these provide no sure base for predictions this year. There have been too many area fluctuations and surprises.

But cheering the Republicans is the bright prospect of a big Nixon landslide.

Polls show Nixon running ahead of Democrat George

"The purpose of the property tax freeze bill is to prevent any increases in property tax bills except in the emergency situations described in the bill," the governor reported.

"The free application to all units of local government, including special districts and school districts."

"The rebate bill applies to cities, counties, townships and villages — the only local units of the state, and I urge their full and careful consideration."

MORE ABOUT McGovern

Daley told me, "There's no question at all that you're going to carry Chicago by a substantial margin."

"He said, 'It's up to you to go Downstate. If you work as hard there, I feel confident we're going to carry the entire state.'"

McGovern commented, "I see here tonight the kind of enthusiasm and devotion that I think wins elections. It's so great to see all the signs."

Among the signs he read was "Republicans for McGovern." He chided President Nixon for traveling less in the campaign than McGovern's grandchild, and said critical television commercials have distorted his positions, including one showing toy soldiers being upset.

"I don't want to knock over our soldiers. I want to bring them home," he asserted.

McGovern said a commercial by the Democrats for Nixon group headed by John Connally mistakenly used a model of a Swedish airplane to represent a U.S. plane. A World War II bomber pilot, McGovern added, "I'm glad Mr. Connally wasn't the tail-gunner on my plane."

He discussed "the essential goodness and decency of Americans and pledged that with his election 'it will be a better country than it has been under the leadership of Richard Nixon and Spiro Agnew.'"

Reporting that "polls are beginning to change, crowds are getting larger and enthusiasm is growing," the Democratic standard-bearer drew loud applause when he forecast that "Mr. Nixon is going to get the surprise of his life."

Recalling the Lincoln-Douglas debates in Illinois 115 years ago, McGovern assailed the President for refusing to meet in "face-to-face public debate."

"He's steadfastly refused debate because he remembers when John F. Kennedy debated him in 1960. And Mr. Nixon knows that his record is one that he cannot defend in a debate."

He described the Administration's record as including a burglary and espionage at the Democratic national headquarters, a grain scandal, a controversial International Telephone & Telegraph ruling and approval of inappropriate mergers.

He said efforts to sabotage his campaign are an unprecedented development in this country.

Reporting capture of men who had "burglar tools, rubber gloves and wiretapping equipment," McGovern said, "If they would do this to the headquarters of the biggest political party in the country, what about your store, bank, law office, union shop or even your home?"

"I'm concerned about the erosion of our privacy and personal freedom."

"I'm concerned that great mergers are allowed in violation of anti-trust laws after political contributions have been made."

While Congress was able to override some votes, other bills were vetoed after legislative adjournment; and the President has said in regard to the over-riding that "he's not going to spend the money."

"The answer to this is for the voters to vote Mr. Nixon," the Democratic nominee declared.

Blaming President Nixon for adding $100 billion to the national debt, "one fourth of the entire national debt since the days of Mr. Washington," McGovern said the President still claims to be "fiscally sound."

The speaker replied to the claim, "What a fraud!"

Taking up the Vietnam issue, Sen. McGovern accused the President of "playing politics with the hopes of the American people for an end to the war in Southeast Asia."

He said on Oct. 9, four years ago, that a President who had failed for four years to bring peace did not deserve another term. Then, a week ago, Thursday he sent Mr. Kissinger to report on national television that we are on the brink of peace.

"When the American people asked why he had accepted the same terms he had before, he said, 'I'm sorry. We still have a few more details to iron out.'"

McGovern added, "I can understand how the American people might be fooled one time. But I can't believe they are going to give this man a chance to do it again."

Saying there is "a crisis of the spirit" in the U.S., the speaker said, "The U.S. is entitled to moral leadership in the highest office of this land."

He quoted a Bible passage: "Every man should be a leader, and he should be a servant." He said, "We are called to lead us again."

Ground Level Impact From Space Research

By FRANK MACOMBER
Military-Aerospace Writer
Copley News Service

Man's preoccupation with space flight of the 1960s is waning, partly because he has conquered space to a great extent with trips to the moon. Moreover, the science-fiction thrill of the unknown beyond the earth has all but vanished.

There will be more space adventures, to be sure. But right now some of the most exciting space research developments have more to do with the earth than the mysterious regions stretching into infinity above our atmosphere.

Most aerospace companies already are using space-related expertise and technology to improve things on our own globe. Some of these offshoots are incredible, like the Boeing Co.'s $500,000 contract from an African firm to study the potential development of tourism at a multimillion-dollar resort complex on the Senegalese coast near Dakar, West Africa.

Others are fascinating, like what the TRW Systems Group's technicians and scientists found out about the oceans while they were developing heat exchanger tubing for seawater desalting plants.

Each Day Longer
They discovered, for example, that the same oceans which someday will supply fresh water for man already have another, more subtle effect on his life. They make each day a tiny bit longer. It works like this:

The moon's gravitational pull lifts the waters of the earth slightly, forming two bulges — one on the side toward the moon, the other on the side opposite the moon. The water bulges move around the globe as it rotates and are a source of the tides.

Where the oceans are most shallow, the water in effect rubs against the sea bottom applying frictional drag to the earth's rotation. The result: our globe's rotation rate is gradually slowing down. Thus the days are becoming longer.

Every 100,000 years, the length of the day is being increased by one second. This is not enough to do away with daylight saving time, but it can't be ignored, either.

For example, as recently as the age of the dinosaurs, the days of our earth were a half-hour shorter than they are now.

A lot of scientists may claim they have perceived this all along, but did you know it? Hence was known it as Tigr's Day or Thursday.

Our Anglo-Saxon forebears replaced the Roman Jove with their equivalent deity, Thor. Hence was known it as Tigr's Day or Thursday.

10 spacecraft — which swept past the moon's orbit in only 11 hours on its way to distant Jupiter — had to become astrometry students to make certain their unmanned capsule would make the half-billion miles to the planet in two years.

So they found that early astronomers named the planets after gods and goddesses and believed each planet "ruled" or had primary influence on one day of the week. Jupiter, the astronomers once insisted, ruled Thursday and so named the day Jove's Day.

Three health problems that can often be the cause of a child doing poorly in school are speech deficiency, poor hearing and bad eye sight. Any or all of these can strongly inhibit the desire for a child to learn and to enjoy the friendships of companions at school.

Many schools will make arrangements for children to be tested for these problems as part of their program or you can ask your family doctor to do it for you. Don't take a chance on having difficulties interfere with what should be a happy time for your child.

McGovern by close to 60% to 40% statewide.

This could mean a one million plurality and spell doom for the entire Democratic state ticket including not only Walker, but Howlett as well.

Democrats insist that Nixon's big lead will trail off by Tuesday and that he will win Illinois by more than 500,000.

To most objective observers, a Nixon plurality of 700,000 would elect Ogilvie while Howlett might still squeeze in. Over that, and Republican Edmund J. Kucharski of Chicago might make it for secretary of state.

The Walker people are counting on a boost for their man from that sizzling Cook County state's attorney's race.

They believe a last-minute surge to controversial incumbent Edward Hanrahan will translate into Chicago votes for Walker.

But Republicans contend that Walker, who has been wistful on the Hanrahan issue, may lose votes instead of gaining them.

Nothing is likely to affect the U.S. Senate race between Percy and Democrat Roman C. Pucinski of Chicago.

Percy seems headed for a precedent-setting plurality of a million votes or more and that will propel him into national prominence as a major contender for the Presidential nomination four years hence.

Scott's big win will set up for a try at either U.S. senator in 1974 for governor in 1976.

A Howlett victory would probably assure him long-term residency in the secretary of state's office.

As for the race for the new office on the fall, comptroller between Republican George Lindberg of Crystal Lake and Democrat Dean Barringer of Anna, it will probably go the way the governor goes.

Canada Eyes Risky Field Of Building 'Big' Planes

By GREGG CONNOLLEY
Copley News Service

Ottawa—Canada is planning a venture into the highly risky field of aircraft manufacture, which could produce planes larger than anything in the skies today.

Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau says research is already going ahead on studies for mammoth transport aircraft which would carry resource material from the arctic to southern Canada.

The new planes would enable movement of resources including rich mineral deposits which are inaccessible to present transport facilities of air, ship and rail.

Important in Trudeau's view is that a viable air service in the far north would help to confirm Canadian sovereignty over its vast arctic holdings.

The Canadian government is seriously concerned that its territorial claims in the north are not fully accepted by all nations. What particularly perturbs Ottawa is the U.S. view of the arctic which seems to contain reservations about the Canadian position.

The exploratory voyages of the experimental tanker Manhattan in the Northwest Passage seemed to confirm to Canadian officials that the United States does not fully accept Canadian arctic sovereignty declarations.

It has been worry over rights in the arctic which has prompted Trudeau to seek support from another arctic nation, the Soviet Union, for Canadian sovereignty.

The increasing shortage of resources in North America—the lack of ample gas supply is one example—has made Ottawa realize what a treasure bed the arctic can be.

This view has been strengthened recently by discoveries of gas and oil in the far north by private companies and the government-backed Panarctic Corp.

Some observers are skeptical about Trudeau's plans for huge resource transport aircraft, questioning capacity and cost factors.

However, Trudeau personally is convinced there is a need for such an aircraft as a link with the north and research on the prospect is going ahead.

The Canadian problem in the past in developing new types of aircraft has been the lack of foreign interest and financial support. But the prime minister doesn't seem to be overly concerned about this difficulty. He is determined to go ahead with the new outside aircraft, with

Kiwanis to Hold Benefit Popcorn Sale for Scouts

Everyone has heard of Girl Scout cookies; but have you heard of Boy Scout popcorn?

The Granite City Kiwanis Club is sponsoring a "Funds-a-Pop" sale to assist local Scout units and to help the operating budget of the Cahokia Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The sale will take place in the southern half of Madison county and Bond counties Nov. 16, 17 and 18. Scouts will sell a package containing four bags of popcorn and the oil needed to pop it for $1.

Coordinating the sale with the Kiwanis club are Mel Gillie, special projects chairman, and W. F. "Mick" Strange, activities chairman for the local council.

"With the holiday Christmas season coming on everyone will need popcorn," Strange commented.

"If you don't like to eat popcorn you can always have an old-fashioned Christmas and string popcorn for tree decorations."

Foreign Teaching Jobs To Be Topic of Meeting

Teachers and students certified to teach who are considering jobs outside the United States are being asked to contact the placement office at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville to indicate interest in attending a conference on international teaching opportunities.

Max Hansel, acting director of placement at SIUE, said the state of Illinois will sponsor a conference Dec. 28-29 in Springfield but the number of countries represented depends on the amount of prior interest.

"Canada, Germany, Great Britain and the Philippines have agreed to participate in the meeting," Hansel said. "Those who may come include Mexico, Japan, Yugoslavia and Australia. The U. S. Department of Defense has also been invited to speak about staffing military dependents' schools overseas."

Hansel said Australia has needs for secondary teachers of mathematics, physics, chemistry, home economics, industrial arts, music, school counseling, slow learners groups (12-16 years old) and English and history (males only qualified to teach both subjects). But, Hansel said, Australia will attend only if there are assurances of a number of qualified candidates to interview for specific openings.

Minimum requirements for teaching in most countries are a bachelor's degree and teacher certification from some state. Experience is not necessary for all of the positions.

Persons interested in attending should call Hansel at 693-2800, leaving their names and mailing addresses so information about the exact time and place of the meeting can be sent to them later. Hansel said no fee is anticipated for attending.

GC Kickers Win Sectional, Will Battle for State Title

The Granite City High School soccer team will be on its way this weekend to the first state soccer tournament in history. The Warriors earned the right to be one of the four teams in the state finals by defeating Jacksonville 1-0 in sectional action this Saturday.

The Warrior victory was even noted by presidential hopeful Sen. McGovern who spoke in Granite City Saturday night. McGovern mentioned a Granite City football victory and added that the soccer team was successful and "is on its way to state."

The state finals at Illinois State University at Normal will pit the Wheaton sectional champion, La Grange, against the Evanston sectional winner, Kewanee. The tournament at Normal will start at 5 p.m. Friday.

Play Friday
The Warriors then will meet the winner of the Chicago Public High Schools Athletic Association Tournament at Normal Friday. The tournament at Chicago moved into semi-final rounds today.

The losers of the first two games at the state finals will play for third place at noon Saturday and the winners will be pitted for the state crown at 2 p.m. Saturday. All games will be played at Hancock Stadium. Warrior center halfback Carl Dake was responsible for the Granite City team advancing to the state tournament as he scored the only point of Saturday's game. Dake's kick came at 24 minutes into the game on a pass from Harvey Breckner at the far right side. Dake blasted the ball through a mass of defenders to Jacksonville goalie Bill Versen.

utes into the game on a pass from Harvey Breckner at the far right side. Dake blasted the ball through a mass of defenders to Jacksonville goalie Bill Versen.

Versen got his hands on the speeding ball but succeeded only in deflecting it into the right hand corner of the net. With six minutes remaining in the game, Jacksonville put six men on the offense, leaving only four defenders. "It was kind of scary with us leading only by one point," Warrior Coach John Sellmeyer commented later.

The Warriors dominated shots on goal 20-6 while Jacksonville led in corner kicks 2-1. Ten penalties were called against Granite City while Jacksonville fouled nine times.

Warrior goalie Tom Clark deflected the net throughout the game, halting five attempts. Versen was credited with 11 saves.

Down St. Dominic
GCBS went into the sectional game on the heels of a 2-1 victory over St. Dominic of O'Fallon, Mo., Thursday at Wilson Park.

The Warriors, outplaying St. Dominic, took a 2-0 lead as Wayne Canada scored on an assist by Rubin Ybarra, coming out of the middle and over the goalie's head, at 22 minutes of the first half, and another goal by Dave Sheridan on a cross from Tony Valencia at 41 minutes into the second half. With 10 minutes left, after making some adjustments in the pack, Doug scored for the

CAUGHT IN THE MIDDLE. SIUE defenseman Tom Galati, center, is hemmed in by two St. Louis University players in a top soccer classic Sunday in Bush Stadium. The Cougars battled the Bills to a double-overtime decision before 14,459 fans.

Two Goals Negated, Cougars Battle Billikens to 1-1 Draw In Double Overtime Game

It was billed as the soccer game of the year, in American collegiate competition. And the game lived up to its advance billing as the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Cougars battled St. Louis University in a 1-1 deadlock in double-overtime before 14,459 fans at Bush Stadium.

The Cougars fans, believing that their favorites had been unjustly deprived of two second half goals by SIUE's leading scorer, Chris Carena, gave the two officials a loud boing after the game.

Down 1-0 at the half after the Bills' Denny Hadican scored on a "header" at 38:47 the Cougars came roaring back and tied it up on an unassisted goal by their freshman star, Steve Cacciatore.

At 25:57 into the second half came the first of two goals. Official Carena of two goals.

Fans Protest
FBI Officer Fitzgerald ruled that Carena was off-side to the loud and vociferous protests of the Cougars fans. At 34:46, the other official, the veteran Larry King, ruled that Chris had fouled as he headed the ball past the Bills' harassed goalie, Chuck Zorumski.

The King decision brought the Cougars' coach, Bob Gueller, storming onto the field protesting bitterly, but to no avail.

Sports reporters in the press box were frankly confused by the first ruling, the off-side call. From upstairs, where the perspective is very good, it did appear that Carena was on-side all the way. However, on the "foul call in front of the milling around St. Louis U. goalie, a foul could easily have been made.

For the entire game the Cougars outshot the Bills 27-21. St. Louis, however, had a clear advantage in corner kicks, 8 to 4. The tie made the Cougars record 7-0-2 and kept them undefeated. St. Louis is now 10-2-3.

"We Really Won"
Said the SIUE coach with tears streaming down her face after the game: "We really won... we really won... we really won."

Said her boy friend: "Well at least we did get past their hex on us. We at least had a tie." He was saying, in effect, that it was a moral victory for the Cougars kickers. For five straight years over the past three years, the Bills have beaten SIUE.

It was a rough and hard-played game that St. Louis area fans have come to expect when these two teams play. For the game, St. Louis U. had 26 fouls called against it, while the Cougars were called 19 times. But, two of those 17 were calls nullifying Carena's goals.

For the Cougars, it was a bitter disappointment. But it probably won't hurt them in the national rankings. For two weeks now SIUE has been No. 4 in nation, while St. Louis U. slipped to No. 6.

Record Attendance
The crowd of 14,459 set a new record for attendance at any kind of a soccer game in St. Louis. And, probably in the U.S. for college ball, although eastern colleges have been regularly drawing 10,000-plus crowds the past two seasons.

SIUE will wind up its regular season on the road next Saturday when the Cougars fly to Akron to take on the nationally ranked U. of Akron Zips. Both Akron and SIUE, regardless of how their game comes out, should receive a bid to play in the NCAA midwest college division regional tournament.

The Cougars have already been awarded the national championships of the college division soccer tournament scheduled for Dec. 7 and 8, which is some kind of record for SIUE. In 1970, SIUE hosted the finals of the university division soccer tournament. This is the first year that the NCAA will have two divisions.

This year, for the first time, St. Louis University is not a threat to the Cougars' hopes for a national championship: the

Trailing 30-12, GCHS Storms Back to Defeat Cahokia Eleven, 31-30

By SCOTT HARRISON
GCHS Football Writer

Granite City High School's 31-30 football victory at Cahokia Saturday afternoon, so impressed Presidential Candidate George McGovern that he opened his campaign speech here that night by discussing the game.

Behind 30-12, the Warriors rallied in the final quarter to capture a narrow win. Behind substantially in the polls for tomorrow's election, Senator McGovern no doubt would like to praise a similar comeback.

Granite City trailed 8-6, 16-12 and 24-12 at the quarters and fell 18 points behind when Cahokia scored to open the fourth period. But then the tide turned and the Warriors were unstoppable.

The tying touchdown was engineered — with only 18 seconds left in the game — by Quarterback Clay Winfield, who passed 22 yards to End Tom Schooley for the six points that made it 30-30.

Brad Liles kicked the placement for the vital 31st point that provided the victory margin. Cahokia's Comanches kicked off to open the game, and on the first play Jon Stagner carried to the 43 yard-line.

A pass fell incomplete but a Winfield-to-Schooley aerial converted the third down problem into a first down opportunity.

However, a fumble on the next play was recovered by Comanche Ralph Buck, who nicked it out and ran 35 yards for a touchdown. A run by Charles Chapman made it 8-0.

Stagner ran the next kick back to his 43, and then made a Winfield-to-Schooley aerial converted the third down problem into a first down opportunity.

On the next play, Stagner ran into the end zone. A pass for the tying two points failed.

The second quarter opened with a Cahokia score by Gary Kharbian on a four-yard run. The next run provided a two-point conversion and a 16-6 lead.

Winfield countered with a 19-yard TD pass to Schooley to make it 16-12. A pass failed for the points after touchdown. Receiving the second half kickoff, the Comanches moved from their 30 to score, chalking up four first downs in the process. Mike Kersting tallied on a third down run, and Chapman ran for a two-point play.

After Stagner ran the kickoff to the GCHS 25, the Warriors fumbled on the first play and Cahokia recovered the elusive ball on the Warrior 41.

The Cahokia drive hard, seeking another TD, but the Warriors forced a fumble and retrieved it on the ten-yard-line. But the offense sputtered and GCHS punted to its own 38. The Comanches scored early in the fourth period, utilizing three series of downs. Kersting passed eight yards to Kharbian for the TD. When a pass for the points after failed, the score stood at 30-12, and a fatal Southwestern Conference loss seemed inevitable for Granite City.

But the game and championship hopes were saved. Stagner ran from his own 43 to enemy 43, and Gary Lively and Stagner gained yardage for the first down on the 31. Winfield then passed to Schooley for the TD and a 30-18 score. The ensuing pass was incomplete.

Kharbian ran the kickoff back to the Comanche 46. Cahokia advanced but fumbled and GCHS began moving in short passes to Martinez, Schooley and Walter Miller.

From seven yards out, Stagner ran it across. An extra point kick failed and it was 30-24.

Aerials to Martinez and Schooley moved the line of scrimmage to the Cahokia 24, and Lively ran two yards, setting the stage for the Winfield-to-Schooley TD and Liles' vital kick.

Only disheartening aspect of the game was a left knee injury sustained by Warrior Dave Williams. He was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

MHS Outplays Borgia But 9 Fumbles Cause 36-6 Road Game Loss

By ROY JACKSON
MHS Football Writer

The Madison Trojans suffered their fifth loss of this season Friday evening as the St. Francis Borgia Knights of Washington, Mo., defeated them 36-6 at Washington. Quarter scores were 6-0, 14-0 and 22-0.

The Knights began their attack early in the game when Halfback Steven Dennis got through the Madison defense for a two-yard TD. The extra point attempt, a pass, failed.

During the second quarter, it was Dennis again for the Knights, this time on a four-yard run. A two-point pass from Quarterback Mark Zoellner to End Dave Skornia was good and it was 14-0 at the half.

In the third period, End Kurt Marquart ran 60 yards to give the Knights another touchdown. This time, Zoellner's pass went to Fullback Ken Noland; it was good and the score became 22-0.

Now Madison started its attack and moved deep into enemy territory. Running Back Charlie Johnson foiled the Borgia defense, got through the line and was gone for 17 yards for the first and only TD by the Trojans. The extra point run was stopped short of the goal.

In the fourth period, Dennis was on the run again for Borgia, this time running 52 yards for a touchdown. The points after TD pass from Zoellner to Marquart was on target and the score was 30-6.

To the dismay of the Trojans, they lost the ball in the end zone a little later. Fullback Tim Riegel recovered it for the Knights and scored what the referee first signalled to be a safety, and then a TD.

A pass fell incomplete, leaving the score 36-6.

Coach Vonder Haar, commenting after the game, said, "Eliminate the fumbles, interceptions and penalties, and we're rather tough."

"We can't expect to turn the ball over 12 times a game and win. As far as statistics go, we had 15 first downs to Borgia's four. How's that for statistics?"

Both teams emphasized running plays. Madison gained 175 to 238 yardage advantage. As the coach noted, the turnovers—three pass interceptions and nine fumbles—proved decisive.

The 1973 Volkswagen is still $1999.***

A bargain is a bargain.

While you can see the new 1973 Beetle is still at a nice low price, you really can't begin to see the value until you know what you're getting for your money.

A warranty, for instance, that's twice what you get with any other small car 24 months or 24,000 miles.

But then, we wouldn't be offering it if it weren't for our incredibly finicky factory inspection: over 1100 inspectors poring over more than 5,000 parts. (It sounds compulsive, but it's the best way to reach perfection.)

And now, there's our new VW Computer Diagnosis system. Meaning literally what it says: a brand new computer that's been installed, or soon will be, in our service area ready to be hooked up to your car. The most advanced service system, via sensors and probes built into critical areas, and spells the results out in plain English. People should have it so good.

Consider also our legendary resale value. When you compare it with other cars after three years, it makes our $1999* sound absolutely amazing.

Everything's adding up to one important point: there's a big difference between being cheap, and being a bargain.

Implied Consent Law Outlined to Madison Lions

The new Illinois implied consent law that became effective Oct. 1 simply means that any person who exercises his privilege to drive a motor vehicle in Illinois automatically consents to take a breath test if he is arrested while apparently intoxicated, Illinois State Trooper James G. Gallo told the Madison Lions Club Thursday evening.

Gallo, an information and education officer assigned to State Police District 11 in Marvill, was the guest speaker at the regular dinner meeting of the Lions club in the Sportsman's Club, 10th and Iowa streets, Madison.

Gallo explained that if a person refuses the breath test, he will lose his license for three months and still may face charge of driving while intoxicated.

Gallo said that over 50% of the deaths in auto accidents can be directly connected with drinking.

Answers Questions
The Lions asked several questions of Gallo such as, "How can I be arrested for the drunk driver?"

Gallo, replied, "It has been established that drinking drivers are one of the greatest hazards to traffic safety. If during the proceedings of the court on a driving while intoxicated charge, it is established that a driver has a known drinking problem, the court may, under the implied consent law, require that driver to obtain professional help for the problem."

Another question: "How will the new law help the public?" Gallo answered that by requiring arrested drivers to take a breath test, the implied consent law will help discover the truth.

The breath test accurately measures the amount of alcohol content in the blood to within one-hundredth of 1% Gallo said.

Will Have Facts
"With this information, law enforcement officials and a court will not have to depend solely upon how the driver looked and acted in determining whether or not he was under the influence of alcohol. They will have the facts—facts given them by a scientifically accurate breath test," the speaker added.

Gallo said the best rule is: "If you drive, don't drink."

He said that for an approximate guide to the effect of a given amount of alcohol anyone may write the Governor's Traffic Safety Coordinating Committee, Box 3007, Springfield, Ill., 62706, for a free Drink Drive Calculator.

Lion Bob Rogers, secretary of the club, introduced three new members, John Novic, Robert Abel and Richard Smith.

Lion W. F. "Mike" Strange called to the club's attention that Lion Ralph Miller was in Room 106 of St. Elizabeth Hospital as was Jack Michels, a long-time employee of the Madison street department and a Madison fireman. Strange asked the members to visit both Miller and Michels.

The Madison Lions Club meets every Thursday at 7 p.m. Dave Clark is president of the Madison Lions Club.

Tri-City Shrine Club Honors Dr. Val Geroff

Dr. Val Geroff was honored by the Tri-City Shrine Club Friday night at a party at Sunset Hills Country Club, in recognition of his sale of 600 tickets to last summer's Almad Shrine Circus.

Dr. Geroff topped all others in the sale of circus tickets in a contest conducted by the club. A Shriner was required to sell at least 30 tickets before he was qualified to compete in the contest.

President Avery Schermer presented Dr. Geroff with a double-jeweled fez as a prize in the ticket sale campaign.

Approximately 150 members and guests attended the dinner including Harold Baker, potter of Almad Temple; Edward Mack and Francis Connors, both past potteresses, and three members of the Tri-City Shrine Club who are now on the Almad Divan, Jack Dempsey, Dick Ervay and Don Adams.

Minehart-Cross Nuptials At Second Baptist Church

Miss Pamela Dell Cross, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey L. Cross Sr., 2311 Logan Ave. and Richard Gale Minehart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. Minehart, 2817 Missouri Ave., exchanged wedding vows at 6 o'clock Saturday evening at the Second Baptist Church, 2100 Illinois Ave.

The Rev. W. L. Showers officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony. Serving as candleholders were Miss Teresa Norden and Miss Jackie Sigite, cousins of the bride and groom.

Prior to the service, Mrs. Betty Grotz presided at the organ and played the themes from "Love Story" and "Romeo and Juliet." Miss Letta Marmann sang, "We've Only Just Begun," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her wedding, the former Miss Cross selected a beautifully designed gown of white velvet and crepe. Venise lace motifs accented the long bishop sleeves set in the Empire bodice that featured a mandarin collar, trimmed with matching lace. Venise lace was re-embroidered on the bodice, creating a bolero effect. The full length skirt was slightly gathered at the sides and back, where a detachable chapel length train, edged in lace, was secured.

A white organza rosebud and petal headpiece enhanced with Venise lace and pearls held in place an elbow length veil of imported Irish lace. She carried a bridal bouquet of white pom poms, red roses and long white satin ribbon.

Miss Marybeth Cross, a sister of the bride, was honor attendant. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Debbie Tomlin, Miss Melanie King and Miss Wanda Frost. Their gowns were designed alike in an Empire style. White flower lace trim edged the high necklines and defined the high rise waists. The long bishop sleeves were closed at the wrists with white pearl buttons.

Honor Girl Scout Leaders At Recognition Dinner

Registered adult leaders active in Girl Scouting were honored at the annual Recognition Dinner of District Four Thursday night at St. John United Church of Christ.

A special award was presented to the Rev. Paul Surbey by Mrs. Doris Stotz, chairman of Neighborhood 3 and general chairman of the affair, and Mrs. Diana Hessel, district chairman.

He received a lapel pin on behalf of the district and was welcomed into the scout movement. Mrs. Hessel spoke on the "Dimes for Daisy" program in which brownies and Girl Scouts participated during October in memory of the birthday of Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scouts.

All donations to the fund are forwarded to International Headquarters in Savannah, Ga., and used to assist financially in sending Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts to International meetings.

There are seven neighborhoods in the district that assist in planning year-long programs for scouts in the River Bluffs Council, and in the individual areas.

The program for the evening included showing of slides of trips made to Florida and Colorado by local scouts. They were shown by Mrs. Phyllis Brusatti and Mrs. Joan Oram. Approximately 85 leaders and guests attended the dinner.

Honors also were accorded to neighborhood chairmen, including Mrs. Evelyn Tolliver, 1;

Mrs. Doris Wood, 2; Mrs. Doris Stotz, 3; Mrs. Carolyn Votaw, 4; Mrs. Wilma McQuinn, 5; Mrs. Kay Dietrick, 6; and Mrs. Jo Ann Artimisi, 7.

Mrs. Hessel served as mistress of ceremonies and introduced the committees which completed arrangements for the annual event.

The Rev. Surbey gave the invocation and the closing ceremony was a song festival.

Less Public Aid Problems Likely in State This Year

Copley News Service

Springfield—There is a chance that Illinois will not face the usual crunch for public welfare funds this year.

For the past 10 years there always has been some type of a squabble in the legislature over the funding of public welfare programs. Even this year deficiency appropriations had to be sought for welfare programs.

As in the past the legislature's cry has been the purse strings should be pulled tight. However, it must be pointed out that in many cases unforeseen problems have arisen in the field of welfare and these programs have to be funded.

The Bureau of the Budget, headed by John Wilbur McCarter Jr., has been budgeting money carefully for welfare programs. The BOB has watched closely the progress made by federal-state revenue sharing and its eventual passage into law by the Congress.

Under federal-state revenue sharing programs, Illinois is to receive some $140 million. Congress also approved a program dealing with social service funds, which means that Illinois will get all of its federal funds it was expecting in this program.

Of course it probably will be up to the General Assembly to have the final say so on the spending of the money in the federal-state revenue sharing program.

But even after receiving some pretty harsh words from some lawmakers, it is doubtful that they will put the squeeze on the Public Aid Department.

Illinois could have received some more federal funds, if the Congress would have approved Sen. Charles H. Percy's plan. Under the Percy plan, the federal government would have made up the difference for a rise in welfare costs during this current fiscal year as opposed to the last fiscal year.

But even with White House support, the plan did not get the needed support from the Congress.

So all in all, Illinois isn't on the brink of disaster concerning welfare funds as it has found itself in previous years. And there still was a further change in the welfare programs.

Starting in 1974, the federal government will sponsor the programs for the aid to the aged, blind programs and the disabled programs.

Lower Financing Costs Available to Tax Units

Copley News Service
Springfield — Local governmental units are being made aware of a new law which might have them up to $5 million each year in short-term financing costs.

Some local governmental units in northern Illinois such as the Chicago public school system are using the law. Others are planning to take advantage of the new system.

Basically the new law allows the local governmental units such as school districts, junior college districts, sanitary districts and other special districts, to issue tax anticipation notes to meet the short-term financing needs of the specific local governmental unit. The new short-term notes do not count against any of the statutory debt restrictions held by law.

The new law was made possible through the passage of the 1970 Illinois constitution. Under the provisions of the constitution the General Assembly is empowered to authorize the issuing of tax notes, a negotiable general obligation financing instrument, rather than non-negotiable warrants which were the common device used by local governments to extend short-term indebtedness. So this year the General Assembly passed into law the legislation which enables the local governmental units to issue such notes to raise the funds.

Under the provisions of the 1972 law, all counties, cities, townships, special taxing districts, school districts, and the junior colleges can issue general obligation notes which may not be sold in an amount to exceed 75% of the property taxes levied in each fiscal year. It also provides that the notes will have to be issued for a specific purpose.

It is also noted that the tax anticipation notes probably will sell at a lower interest rate which in turn will provide the savings.

Ogilvie Asks Court to End Individual Personal Taxes

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie last week asked the U. S. Supreme Court to validate the repeal of the Illinois personal property tax on individuals.

Ogilvie acted under a rarely used prerogative of a state chief executive to file a legal brief in support of that filed by an attorney general (William J. Scott).

Speaking as chief executive and as a "friend of the court," Ogilvie declared in Washington that the decision of the Illinois Supreme Court knocking out the September 1970 referendum was erroneous and was based on misapplication of a previous opinion of members of the highest court.

The court accepted the case from Scott and Ogilvie. Oral argument this year on petitions from Scott and Ogilvie. Oral argument from Scott and Ogilvie. Oral argument from Scott and Ogilvie.

guments are expected to be presented on the merits of the case this month or next.

In his 12-page brief, Ogilvie declared:

"The sole question before this court is whether the distinction drawn in (the referendum) between individuals . . . and corporations is permissible under the equal protection clause of the 14th amendment."

The Illinois decision, Ogilvie declared, "placed substantial restrictions on the state's taxation powers" and "only the highest court" can correct this erroneous interpretation of federal constitutional law and remove the improper restrictions imposed by the Illinois court . . . upon the state's taxation program."

The governor noted that all personal property taxation, under the new constitution, must be eliminated by 1979, and continued:

"The people of Illinois, by constitutional amendment (in 1970), chose to recognize 'degrees of evil' . . . and to eliminate the tax in the first instant upon individuals who do not enjoy the advantages which flow from ownership of property in a corporate form."

Huge Transformer to Be Installed at Stallings

A mammoth transformer weighing approximately 402,000 pounds shortly will be moved from its present resting place on top of a special 12-axle flat-bed railroad car, adjacent to the Illinois Power Co. substation at Stallings, into the IPC facility on Highway 162.

The 345/138 kilovolt transformer is to be installed here as part of a nearly completed construction project involving a power line from the Baldwin, Ill., station to the Stallings substation, according to John Blasigame, assistant to the service area manager.

Purpose of the transformer is to reduce the input of 345 kilovolts to 138 kilovolts to feed into the system here. A kilovolt is a unit of electromotive force equal to 1,000 volts.

When filled with oil and auxiliary equipment at the Stallings site, the transformer will weigh 355 tons, or 710,000 pounds, Blasigame said.

A special flatbed car, new to the industry, weighing 125 tons empty, transported the transformer here.

The car was devised by the Thrall Car Co. especially to move electrical equipment of this size. Three other flatbed cars on the siding hold auxiliary equipment for the transformer.

Girl Scout Convention Requirements Revised

Changes in the Girl Scout Promise and Girl Scout laws and approval of three proposals relating to attendance of delegates at national conventions of the Girl Scouts highlighted the 39th National Council Convention of Girl Scouts held in Dallas, Tex.

At the opening of the three-day convention, 99% of the delegates, on a nation-wide basis, was represented by more than 11,000 delegates and guests, and a voting power of 5,388 delegates.

In addition, 900 Senior Girl Scouts and 300 of the registered members were granted voting rights on changes and proposals that would affect all scouts. Changes to be made in the Promise and Scout laws are to be minimal and will be printed in the River Bluffs Council paper, the "Reporter," sent to each scout in the Council area. Girl Scout leaders may obtain a copy of these changes upon request to the River Bluffs office.

Proposals Approved

The three proposals of interest to all registered adults and scouts who plan to someday attend a national convention were approved by the delegates. They include lowering the number of delegates to attend a national meeting because of limited space available for such a group, as well as the housing problem for three-day meetings; lowering the age of a delegate to 14 years or older, and reducing the age for an associate member. On the latter bill detailed information may be obtained from a district chairman or through the council office.

Attending the three-day session from Granite City were Mrs. Doris Votow, River Bluffs Council representative, and Mrs. Ruby Jackson, associated with District 2 in the Edwardsville-Staunton area, who was a guest.

The River Bluffs Council covers a five and one-half county area and has 21 delegates to represent the overall area. Fourteen were voting adults and one Senior Scout, with voting privileges. The remainder were guests.

In addition to the business sessions, delegates inspected many exhibits of various materials to be used in scouting handwork and camping, and other equipment pertinent to the scouting program.

NOVEMBER BRIDE Mrs. Roger Alan Laws, former Miss Donna Jean Hill, whose wedding took place Friday evening at St. John United Church of Christ. She is a daughter of Mrs. Lois Hill, Holiday Mobile Home Park and Carlton Hill of Caseyville, Ill.

Laws-Hill Ceremony at St. John United Church

Bouquets of pink and white flowers decorated the altar and the bride carried a modified colonial bouquet of white pom poms and red Sweetheart roses, centered with a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

Maid of honor, Miss Anita Ambers, and bridesmaids, Misses Beverly Hickman, Gloria Bentley, Rena Hill and Carol Lewis, the latter two sisters of the bride and groom, were dressed alike in burgundy velvet dresses.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Lois Hill, Lot 22, Holiday Mobile Home Park and Carlton Hill, 26 Bauer Drive, Caseyville. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse R. Laws, reside at 2277 Dewey Ave.

Performing the double ring ceremony at 7 o'clock was the Rev. Paul Surbey, Miss Cheryl Pikoratis, song, "The Lord's Prayer," and "We've Only Just Begun," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Irene Barrick.

Given in marriage by her brother, David W. Hill, the bride wore a full length gown of white sateen designed with an Empire bodice, high neckline and long sheer sleeves, accented with delicate lace. Matching lace formed four rows of trim at the bottom of the A-line skirt.

Her long mantilla veil of bridal illusion was edged in fragile scalloped lace and she carried a modified colonial bouquet of white pom poms and red Sweetheart roses, centered with a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

The groom chose his brother, Ronald Laws, as best man. Groomsmen and ushers included Stanley Valencia, Robert Odum, Montgomery (Butch) Leonard, Robert Martinez, Michael McGovern and Gregory Nighobossian.

Mrs. Hill selected a formal length gown in pink, designed with a stand-up collar, long sleeves and a slightly gathered skirt. She complemented her dress with silver accessories.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Laws, was attired in a peach-colored street length dress, accented with a silver-peach braid. She wore matching accessories. Both mothers wore cymbidium orchid corsages.

Guests were received by the newly married couple at a reception given at Holy Trinity Hall in Madison. Miss Pamela Hill, a cousin of the bride, attended the guest book.

The former Miss Hill, a graduate of Collinsville High School, is employed at MEC Credit Union in St. Louis. Her husband graduated in 1969 from Granite

Re-Election of Gov. Ogilvie Important to Quad-Cities

This is predicted to be the "year of the cross-over," in which most voters cast a split-ticket ballot.

The Press-Record has endorsed more Democrats than Republicans but feels that—due to challenges currently facing the Quad-Cities—it would be in the interest of all local residents of both parties to support for governor a Republican, the incumbent, Richard B. Ogilvie.

Spirited Rally on Final Weekend of Election Campaign

Democracy is alive and well in the Quad-Cities, Illinois and America, as attested by such events as the McGovern political rally at Granite City High School Saturday night.

Even in a campaign which pollsters indicate is a losing cause, respect for the office and enthusiasm for the candidate that the Quad-Cities area was filled with several thousand persons.

Oratory throughout the evening was of the old-fashioned, audience responded with fervor. The chief aspect distinguishing it from partisan gatherings of decades ago was the participation by a modern-era folk singer.

Nixon Candidacy Defends Character of the American People Against the Moral-Absolutist Intelligentsia

(Wall Street Journal)

In a radio address Oct. 21, President Nixon made what many read on his side of the deep social, cultural and even moral division the nation has placed in its history.

It is the kind of statement we had long been expecting from Nixon, administration, but had never quite got in word or deed.

Especially in the midst of a presidential campaign, of course, one must make a discount for partisan exaggerations.

Those on the opposite side of the division also speak for high values, who can question the morality of stamping out the vestiges of racism; relieving the plight of the poor; or ending the horror of war?

Mr. Nixon's foes do not seek aggrandizement of government for its own sake, but as a means justified by the end of serving those values.

If the morality is absolutist and often fanned with unreality, it still has its own honorable place in the American tradition.

But in the end the President's analysis holds.

Sometime in the last half of the 1960s this crusading moralism marched over the brink.

If all of its lofty aims were not achieved overnight, its partisans tended to conclude, the American society and the American people must be racist, imperialist and otherwise immoral.

Because the crusading viewpoint carries such weight in the articulate sectors of American society and the media, this viewpoint grew into a powerful psychological and political force.

The American people are not like that, and someone needed to stand up and say so.

And because the matter seemed so heavily on the legitimacy of government—the right by which the power of the White House and the exercise of those powers in the administration's interest to do so.

This division is what the Spiro Agnew controversy was all about.

Yet the President, now, the administration did succeed in establishing its right to make policy in Vietnam by demonstrating that its opponents did not in fact speak for the whole people.

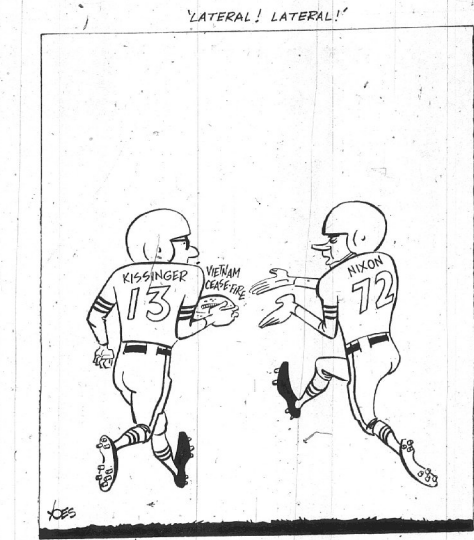

The President now speaks against the crusade of the 1960s, the administration dropped not only the crusade but the moralism.

And most of all, the traditional virtues of the President are now dealing so explicitly with the philosophical issues, that his administration has changed its stance on such issues as quotas and spending and that it is defending its new stance as not only prudent but right.

In fact the constantly changing claims of the crusading morality are not the only morality.

In fact the American people provide a great practical sense its political and intellectual leaders need to take.

If that much can somehow be established, the nation will be a far happier place.

Elections Always Exciting to Us

Elections do not always turn out the way newsmen might wish, but election time usually is a happy experience for them.

Effective functioning of democracy through an informed electorate is one of the chief goals of any newspaper, and the campaign period is a busy, satisfying time.

Officials, candidates and the citizenry are in almost constant dialogue, and news people who help relay such information and opinion find themselves immersed in a highly interesting and important event.

Even in the 1972 "non-campaign," in which many have assailed voters for apparent indifference, there is considerable evidence that the public does care mightily and will turn out in record or near-record numbers tomorrow.

Early November often precedes the Quad-Cities, and we vividly recall many cold election nights spent driving to polling place to poll place.

The task was to intercept vote judges after they had finished their tallying but before they had closed up and left for the Madison County Courthouse with the ballot boxes.

This was difficult to do because each staff member was assigned a fairly large geographic area. When several groups of poll officials were completing their duties, it was a challenge to record the totals rapidly and hurry on to the next location.

Big crowds meanwhile would gather at the Press-Record office, where Quad-City area results were tabulated on large charts.

A law change later made it an official obligation of the poll judges to submit an extra listing which remains outside the sealed container of ballots and tally books.

These figures now are posted around the Courthouse corridors and on detailed charts to be prepared of the voting results in an entire township or precinct, and by precincts, much as it was done at each news

PEOPLE FAVOR HOWLETT, OGILVIE, SCOTT, THOMAS

To the Editor:

"We Republican party members please stand?" is a phrase the professional politicians are now asking. But it seems the people are not listening.

Maybe the straight party line will go the way of the outside clothesline. There will always be a few around, but nothing like the old days.

As a volunteer campaigner, I hear a great deal about the candidates.

I have talked to over two thousand people and I love to hear what they have to say about the people our country, state and county.

Many of them say, "I am a Democrat, but I am going to split my ticket like I never split it before."

They say things like "Nixon is doing a good job and we want to keep him as our President."

Congressman Melvin Price has served this district well and has come to our aid so many times, we feel he is part of the family.

"Richard Ogilvie has set a record as the best governor we have had in many years."

"Mike Howlett deserves to serve as secretary of state because of the fine job he has done as state auditor."

"William Scott has made his mark in many fields, as the pollution fight, consumer protection, voting rights and civil rights."

"Sam Vadalabene is a hard-working senator and fights to get needed projects, such as highway construction, flood control and better education."

"Leland Kennedy has the experience in the House of Representatives and puts it to good use whenever there is a difficult problem."

"And Bob Thomas will hold his post as county coroner as long as I can vote."

These are the comments of folks from all walks of life and I love to hear them.

The Independents have been around for a long time; we just need the right year to be heard.

Peace Through Strength-President

Excerpts from President Nixon's address accepting nomination for re-election:

"We have made great progress. We have changed America, and America has helped to change the world."

As a result, America is a better place and the world is a safer place than was the case four years ago.

The choice in this election is not between radical change and no change. The choice is between change that works and change that won't work.

It has become fashionable in recent years to point up what is wrong with our American system.

The critics contend it is so unfair, so corrupt, so unjust that we should tear it down and substitute a new system in its place.

I totally disagree. I believe in the American system.

I have traveled to 80 countries in the past 25 years. I have seen Communist systems and socialist systems and systems half free and half socialist.

When I return home I realize how fortunate we are to live in America. This is a great country, a good country.

We have more freedom, more opportunity and more prosperity than any people in the world.

Americans have more jobs at higher wages than in any country in the world.

Our rate of inflation is the lowest of any industrial nation.

People on welfare in the United States would be rich in most of the nations of the world today.

One of the goals of our new Administration is to reduce the property tax, which is such an unfair, heavy burden for the poor, the elderly, the wage earner, the farmer and those on fixed incomes.

Unemployment today is less than the average for the past 20 years of the 1960s.

But we must continue the unparalleled increase in new jobs so that we can achieve a goal of our new prosperity—a job for every American who wants to work, without war and without inflation.

Our opponents believe in a different philosophy.

There is the politics of paternalism, where massive government in Washington makes decisions for people.

Ours is the politics of people, where people make decisions for people.

Their platform promises everything to everybody at a net increase of $14 billion in the budget, which would mean a 50% tax increase for the taxpayer of America.

They have proposed legislation which would add $2 billion to the welfare rolls.

Instead of providing incentives for more millions to go on welfare, we need a program to give incentives for people to get off welfare and go to work.

When you add up the cost of all the programs our opponents have proposed, you can reach only one conclusion: they would destroy the system which has made America No. 1 in the world economically.

Today, Americans pay one-third of their income in taxes. If their programs were enacted, Americans would have to pay over half of their income in taxes.

'Change America So We May Love It'—Sen. McGovern

Portion of talk by Senator George McGovern accepting the 1972 Democratic nomination to run for President:

Honest work must be rewarded by a fair and just tax system.

The tax system today does not reward hard work; it penalizes it.

Inherited or inherited wealth frequently multiplies itself while paying no taxes at all. But wages on the assembly line or in farming the lands, these hard-earned dollars are taxed to the very penny.

There is a depletion allowance for oil wells, but no depletion for the farmer who feeds us, or the worker who serves us all.

The Administration tells us that we should not discuss tax reform in an election year.

They would prefer to keep all discussion of the tax laws in the shadows where the Administration, its powerful friends and their paid lobbyists can turn every effort at reform into a new loophole for the rich and powerful.

But an election year is the people's year to speak.

This year, the people are going to ensure that the tax system is changed so that those who derive the highest benefits will pay their full share, rather than slipping through the loopholes at the expense of the rest of us.

Let us stand for justice and jobs and against special privilege.

This is the time to stand for those things that are close to the American spirit.

We are not content with things as they are. We reject the view of those who say "America—love it or leave it." We reply, "Let us change it so we may love it the more."

It is time for this land to become again a witness to the world for what is just and noble in human affairs.

It is time to live more with faith and less with fear, with an abiding confidence that can sweep away the strongest barriers between us and teach us that we are truly brothers and sisters.

Join with me in this campaign. Lend me your strength, your support, and together we will call America home to the ideals that nourished us from the very beginning.

From secrecy and deception in high places, come home, America.

From military spending so wasteful that we can end the war on poverty in America.

From the enrichment of special privileges and tax favors, come home, America.

From the waste of useful labor, from the prejudice based on race and sex, from the loneliness of the aging poor and the despair of the neglected sick—come home, America.

Come home to the affirmation that we have a dream; come home to the conviction that we can move our country forward.

Come home to the belief that we can seek a newer world, and let us be joyful in that homecoming.

For this is your land, this land is my land—from California to the New York island, from the redwood forest to the Gulfstream waters of the land, we need for you and me.

May God grant each one of us the wisdom to cherish this good land, to meet the great challenge that beckons us home. Now is the time to meet that challenge.

Couple Exchanges Vows In Evening Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Neve Catherine Smith and Stephen Andrew Benko, En/3, U. S. Navy, was solemnized at 6 p.m. Oct. 14, at the First Christian Church, 2904 Maryville Road.

Lighted tapers in branched candelabra and an arrangement of white spider mums, snapdragons and carnations decorated the altar for the double ring ceremony, performed by the Rev. Larry Necessary.

Wedding selections were furnished by Miss Letitia Marmion, who sang, "Turn Around," "One Heart One Hand," "We've Only Just Begun" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Duane G. Smith, 3017 Myrtle Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Benko, 2440 Iowa St. The former Miss Smith chose an Empire style gown of acetate satin designed with a high neckline trimmed with Venice lace that extended to a wide panel ending at the high-rise waistline. Matching lace edged the cuffs of the sheerest sleeves and formed the hemline of the A-line skirt.

She wore a mantilla veil of bridal illusion accented with a narrow braid of Venice lace motifs and she carried a bouquet of white pom poms, carnations, yellow rose buds and baby breath.

Miss Sandra Jones, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Lisa Jean Smith, the bride's sister, served as bridesmaid.

They wore identical gowns of apricot georgette over acetate fashioned in an Empire design.

Candidates Attend Percy Coffees

Among more than 2,000 simultaneous coffee parties held last week throughout the state honoring U.S. Senator Charles H. Percy (R-Illinois) were 12 social events hosted at homes in the Quad-Cities.

Special guests were present at several local parties, including Republican candidates seeking office in Madison County.

Those assembled at the homes viewed a half-hour telecast by Sen. Percy, who discussed key issues of the election campaign and introduced his family during the informal program. Mrs. Glen Chaboudie, organizing chairman for the Quad-City area, reported.

A guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Johnson in Madison was Clarence Green, a local poll judge, who explained how to operate the voting machines to a group of senior citizens gathered there.

Parties at the residences of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lynn and Mrs. Olivia Lehman were visited by Republican candidates, Ralph Astorion, recorder of deeds, Martin "Tony" Olsen, state senator and Melvin Hubach, county auditor.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Robert H. Thomas in Granite City were surprised by a visit from Cap Smith of National Stockyards, a personal friend of Sen. Percy, who spoke to the group on his behalf.

Mrs. Chaboudie reported that gift trips involving expense-paid flights to Washington, D. C., and lunch with Sen. Percy will be awarded Nov. 6 to four persons who were among those attending the parties.

Wedding Bells Chime at Quad-City Churches for Late Autumn Brides

Maryann Fechte Becomes Mrs. Joseph N. Schicker

Sacred Heart Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding on Saturday morning of Miss Maryann Fechte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Fechte, 2601 Cleveland Blvd., and Joseph N. Schicker Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Schicker, 1651 Rathford Drive, Grove Center, Mo.

Large white floral arrangements decorated the three altars in the sanctuary. Lighted tapers in branched candelabra and greenery created the background at the main altar, and candles entwined with vines marked the pews for the 11 o'clock double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Daniel Flynn.

John Stanfill, soloist, sang "Prayer for a Perfect Life," "Wedding Prayer," "Our Times are Thy Hands," "Love One Another," "Sing of Mary" and "Love is a Song." He was accompanied at the organ by Jim Havranek.

Mr. Fechte escorted his daughter down the white carpeted aisle and gave her in marriage. She selected an exquisite fashioned gown of candlelight silk faced peau de soie lavishly applied with re-embroidered Alencon lace, etched with tiny seed pearls.

Long slim fitted sleeves, ending with points at the wrists, were enhanced with delicate lace appliques and set in a fitted Empire bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace, featuring a high collar of matching lace.

Ornate lace motifs were repeated on the A-line skirt and bordered the hemline, with rows of pearls detailing the scalloped edge. The cathedral train sweeping gently from the high rise was accented with matching lace and pearl appliques.

She wore a full length veil of silk tulle, an original design.

sign, secured with a headpiece of tiny flowers. She carried a cascade bouquet of white cocktail orchids and baby breath.

Miss Barbara Fechte, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor serving with Miss Sue Schicker, the groom's sister, Miss Joan Bryant and Miss Carole Wickman, both cousins of the bride, as bridesmaids.

They were gownned in identical dresses created of royal purple velvet in an Empire style. The scoop necklines were defined with a tiny ruffle and the frocks were designed with short sleeves and slightly gathered skirts.

Each attendant wore a crown of matching fresh flowers in her hair and held a bouquet of pink carnations, purple asters and baby breath.

Gary Mueller attended the groom as best man. Steven Mesman, Robert Goerger, Nelson Hediger, Stacy Schicker, a brother of the groom, and Jim Wickman, a cousin of the bride, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Danny Fechte and George Kovach, both cousins of the bride, served as altar boys.

Mrs. Fechte chose for her daughter's wedding a coat and dress ensemble of petal pink peau de soie featuring a high collar and beaded yoke and complemented with matching accessories.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Schicker, was attired in a street-length coat and dress costume of turquoise silk shantung designed with stand up collar trimmed with heavy lace and embellished with rhinestones. Deep scallops of lace encircled the hemline and her accessories were in a matching turquoise shade. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

A reception was held at the Croatian Hall, 1000 Madison Ave., immediately following the ceremony. Miss Pat Havranek, a cousin of the bride, presided over the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Schicker, parents of the groom, were hosts at a rehearsal dinner for members of the wedding party on

Mr. Dolan escorted his daughter down the white carpeted aisle and gave her in marriage. She chose to wear her mother's wedding gown of ivory satin fashioned in classic style and featuring a cathedral length train.

An heirloom Brussels lace embellished with beads and seed pearls, belonging to the bride's great-great-grandmother, enhanced the train and bordered the cuffs of the gown's long sleeves.

A fourteen veil of bridal illusion was secured to a lace cap and she carried a cascade of ivory roses, stephanotis and baby breath, centered with a pure white orchid.

Miss Peggy Dolan, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Suzanne Schalkham of Virginia Beach and Mrs. Howard Whaley of Bethalto, both sisters of the groom, and Miss Patty Dolan, the bride's sister.

They were gownned alike in hot pink chiffon dresses, formal length, accented with fragile ivory lace. Made along Empire lines, the frocks were trimmed with lace at the high neckline, on the cuffs of the long sleeves and encircling the high rise waists.

Each girl wore a pink ribbon in her hair and held a bouquet of roses and carnations.

The little flower girl, Kay Naumann, wore a long frock similar in style to the bridal gown. She carried a basket of rose petals. Mark Whaley, a nephew of the grooms, served as ringbearer.

If you want lower property taxes, you want McGovern. Here's why:

1. McGovern will end the war, cut $30 billion of Pentagon fat, and give money to the states and local communities for education, housing, jobs, pollution control, etc. -- lifting the tax burden off your back.

2. McGovern will plug $22 billion in tax loopholes and give money to the states and local communities for education, housing, jobs, pollution control, etc. -- lifting the tax burden off your back.

3. You know McGovern will do both because he's the only candidate who has been fighting to do both for years. Agree with him or not, you know McGovern says what he means, and does what he says.

Highlights of Granite City McGovern Rally

There was tight security Saturday night during the appearance of U. S. Senator George McGovern for a campaign address in the Granite City High School gymnasium.

Secret Service agents and city, county and state police were on duty in the gym and the surrounding grounds. Secret Service agents were posted at various points in the crowd and state troopers were stationed atop the gym building.

A helicopter equipped with strong searchlights circled the area, checking building tops and the grounds. The helicopter followed the candidate's car and police convoy as it left the area.

Martin Nolan, 32, of Washington, D.C., a news man employed by the Boston Globe who has been traveling with the candidate, suffered a fractured left elbow when he fell in the parking lot at the high school gym. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 10:40 p.m. and was transferred to the Jewish Hospital, St. Louis.

Republican campaigners took advantage of the overflow crowd the Democratic rally. Several youths stood at the doors distributing literature for President Nixon and Governor Ogilvie. Later, youths carrying a Nixon sign were asked to leave the building.

Campaign placards were numerous. One said: "Americanism for McGovern." On the reverse side was "Nixon on Spoken With Forked Tongue." Another announced, "Large Irish Catholic Families for McGovern."

Quid City municipalities were represented at the rally by Mayors John E. Lee of Venice and Mike Sassek of Madison, and by Dave Partney representing his father, Mayor Donald Partney of Granite City.

Herb Hartman, folk singer and guitarist, sang a number of songs specially written for the occasion, including "Tricky Dicky, We'll Not Be Fooled" and "When George McGovern Marches In."

Granite City Auxiliary Police and the Civil Defense ALERT Club (affiliated League of Emergency Radio Teams) were on duty.

Sen. McGovern showed considerable concern because of his late arrival. He halted at an exit from the boys' locker room to talk and shake hands, and expressed his thanks for everyone waiting.

A tall youth told him he came from Muskogee, Okla. McGovern replied, "That's where Mrs. McGovern and I were married. It is a good town." The boy replied, "You are in, George."

Sen. McGovern was wiping his forehead—it was very warm in the locker room area—when he thanked Mrs. Valerie Evenden of the Press-Record for attending and waiting so long.

Arson Investigation Into Fires Today

A state arson investigation is underway to find the cause of separate fires to a Mitchell couple's car and mobile home early this morning.

Mitchell volunteer firemen first were summoned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ray, 185 Sunny Shores Mobile Home Park, at 2 a.m. today to extinguish a fire in the couple's 1960 automobile. The fire gutted the interior and the auto was considered a total loss.

At 4 a.m., firemen were called to the couple's mobile home where fire started in the utility room and spread to the kitchen and living rooms. The three rooms were gutted and flames broke through the aluminum siding in several places. Damage to the unit was estimated at $3,500.

The Rays rented the mobile home from Glen Bartling, 2326 Pontoon Road.

Mental Health Clinic Studies Contract

The possibility of entering into a contract to provide mental health services at the Madison County Nursing Home was discussed by the board of directors of the Quad-Cities Mental Health Clinic at its monthly meeting Thursday.

The board agreed to ask the county mental health (708) board for an opinion of whether the nursing home should be charged for the service or if a contract should be drawn to provide free care. The clinic has been providing care at the home on a free, informal basis. The contract is necessary to meet state requirements.

The board agreed to meet with representatives of the Illinois Department of Mental Health at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 20, at the department's subregion office in Edwardsville to discuss grants-in-aid from the state to the local clinic for the 1973-74 year.

OFFICE BURGLARIZED

A typewriter valued at $50 and an adding machine valued at $40 were stolen in a burglary of the Milam Corp., 1555 State St., it was reported at 7:25 a.m. Sunday. Entry was gained by breaking six small windows panes at the rear of the building.
